DIVORCE CHECKLIST:

What documents will you need for a first consultation?

Do not worry if you do not have everything. Bring what you can. Every document will help us give to you clearer guidance and advice:

- ☐ Your ID document or passport.
- ☐ Your marriage certificate.
- ☐ Your antenuptial contract, if you signed one.
- ☐ Your children's birth certificates.
- ☐ Recent payslips (or proof of income if you are self-employed) for the last three months.
- ☐ Recent bank statements.
- ☐ Bond, vehicle finance, loan and credit card statements.
- ☐ Pension, provident fund, retirement annuity and investment statements, if you have them.
- ☐ A list of your monthly household expenses and the children's expenses.
- ☐ Any existing agreements, letters or court orders about your marriage, children or maintenance.
- ☐ A short timeline of your marriage and the main events that led to this point.
- ☐ Your questions. Write them down; nothing is too small to ask.

You are welcome to contact us if you have any questions before your first consultation.
